

IBERICANISM

" Finely-crafted compositions, uniting mainstream qualities with a carefree commitment to the freedom, and extensive embrace of alternative genres, Ibericanism is no doubt set to become a name worth knowing about amidst the future of electronic dance. "

REBECCA CULLEN / STEREO STICKMAN MAGAZINE (UK)

BIOGRAPHY

Born in early 80's, Jean-Philippe Pinto is a Portuguese-French artist from Lyon.

Dj, producer, remixer, and radio host for over 25 years, under various pseudonyms, specialized in House and Techno, he initially signed projects on labels like Knuck! in Mexico, on German label Big Mamas House Records, and Huambo Records in Spain, thus discovering the first joys of seeing his work featured on the tops of Beatport and Traxsource, and receiving support from world leaders such as Bob Sinclar, Don Diablo, Black Coffee, Claptone, Ferry Corsten and Danny Tenaglia.

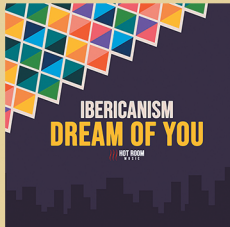

His weekly radio show is currently broadcasted on +30 radio stations around the world, including FM frequencies in Ibiza, Madrid, Barcelona and various cities in Spain, Punta Cana (Dominican Republic), Buenos Aires (Argentina), Kharkiv (Ukraine), and on UK south coast (Hampshire, Isle Of Wight, West Sussex, Dorset).

Among his guests, there are some emblematic artists of fresh international House Music scene, such as Oscar P (Open Bar Music), Block & Crown, Saeed Younan, Inve & Forsi (MUMI Records), DrumsMaster, naming just a few.

Label owner, he founded Hot Room Music in 2023, while continuing to collaborate with important record companies in 'Tech House' and 'Afro House' categories, including Americans Big Speaker Music and Pasqua Records (Mr.Eclectic), British WeAreiDyll Records, and Carlos Francisco's SP Recordings, former resident of London's legendaries Ministry Of Sound and Turnmills clubs. In addition, he appears regularly on Move Ibiza Radio compilations.
